Why I love fashion

Hello, I'm Marie Stark

Fashion is one of the few spaces where identity, creativity, and humanity collide. Fashion gives you a language to express who you are — not just as a 60+ model, but as a storyteller, a connector, and a cultural bridge-builder.

My Vision

Showing the Best Side of The Product

Every product is a beautiful work. Therefore I will show the best side of the product so that consumers see what reasons they can make to buy the product.

Bold and Daring

Calm Strength & Quiet Confidence

A steady Presence, grounded, and assured. We don't need to be the loudest voice to be the most influential one. Confidence comes from lived experience, not performance.

Boldly Authentic

60+ model who embraces age as a source of strength, not limitation. You don't shrink to fit the industry; you invite the industry to grow.
